Twenty years of professional years of experience working with homeless and at-risk adults. Spent 6 ½ years working for Mayor Daley on issues of homelessness and poverty, first as Deputy Chief of Staff for Human Services and then as the head of the Office of Homeless Services at DFSS. During this time Jim was instrumental in guiding the Plan to End Homelessness and held a seat on the Planning Council. Jim has been an outspoken and aggressive advocate for homeless service agencies and their clients, as demonstrated by the issue he engaged during his 4 ½ years at StreetWise. Jim is committed to ending homelessness and his passion and experience will be a great assets to the Planning Council.
